

REMARKS

In response to the Office Communication dated 25 August 2006, Applicant submits this Amendment. Reconsideration and reevaluation, as amended, is respectfully requested.

In the Office Action dated 25 August 2006, the Examiner noted that the response filed by Applicant was not fully responsive to the restriction requirement because Applicant must identify an elected species and identify the claims readable on the elected invention. Accordingly, Applicant elects species A. Additionally, the claims readable on this species are claim 1 and claim 12. It should be noted that Applicant re-urges their argument regarding the withdrawal of the restriction requirement; said argument, filed on 17 July 2006, is incorporated herein.

Please note that claim 1 has been amended to read:

A medicinal product comprising ~~characterized in that through a content of components and/or~~ extracts of prunus armenica and of cocos nucifera and of humulus lupulus and of germinated barley ~~or germinated rye, or germinated wheat~~ and of mycete, and the liquid obtained from alcoholic fermentation of the grape juice of grapevines, and ~~from~~ of musaze and ~~from~~ of rubus leaves, in each case as active ingredient.

Additionally, we note that claim 12 has also been amended such that the mycete is yeast, especially saccharomyces cerevisiae (baker's yeast).

Additionally, regarding the species B, C, D, E, and F of the Office Action, Applicant elects the following:

- Specie B:
- kernels of Prunus armenica
  - endosperm (copra) of cocos nucifera

- cells of saccharomycetes cerevisiae (baker's yeast, bar-shaped or cube-shaped)
- fruits of musaze (bananas)
- leafs of rubus (blackberry)

5        Specie C: please elect "auxiliary means" as additional component and "drops" as one form of administration, in claim 4.

Specie D: elect extraction-method: solid-liquid extraction (claim 5) and subsequent partial evaporation (exactly: discontinous mash extract bath with water at 37°C for 120 hours, subsequently distillation of the extract, 5-times)

10       Specie E: - please elect liquid extract (extracta fluidica) in claim 9.
             - please elect drops in claim 10.

Specie F: please elect diseases of the psyche in claim 13.

In conclusion, Applicant offers this response. Please note that specie A has been elected with traverse. Claims 1 and 12 have also been amended with this response. If it would 15    aide in disposition of this matter, the Examiner is kindly requested to contact the undersigned.

Respectfully Submitted,
